HALF FANATICS OCTOBER 2014 NEWSLETTER

Featured Fanatic Jay White, Half Fanatic #7332

My Road to Running... My road to running began with a heart attack on New Year's Eve of 2001, at the age of 47. Due to the holiday, my triple bypass surgery was not performed until a few days later, on January 2, 2002. I recovered and seemed that all was well until December of 2006 when I went into atrial flutter. The doctor had to shock me to get my heart back into a normal rhythm. When I woke up from being shocked, my doctor asked how I felt and my response was "I feel like running a marathon!"

A Rough Start... True to my word, as soon as I was released to exercise, I began running. In November of 2010, I ran 2 full marathons about 3 weeks apart, but afterwards I did not feel quite right. A visit to my cardiologist revealed my mitral valve was leaking and I was in atrial fibrillation. So in January of 2011, I had another open heart surgery to repair my mitral valve. The atrial fibrillation did not stop after the surgery. To correct it, I had 2 ablations, 1 in May and another in July of 2011.

Running Strong... Fast forward three years, in September of this year, on my 60th birthday, I completed the full Warrior Challenge at the Maui marathon. The Maui marathon was my 100th race. To date, I have logged a total of over 17,000 miles and completed 112 half and full marathons. To commemorate each race I get a star tattoo on my arms.
