Featured Fanatics

Jim & Rosie Cheek, Half Fanatics #3953 & 3954

Starting Line: Jim and Rosie Cheek kiss as the announcer counts down to start the Dallas Rock-n-Roll Marathon. Along with their corral, they start their 13.1 miles. Jim takes off too fast and Rosie uses their mantra “run our pace, run our race” to slow him down. They have been running together for almost 20 years and it always bring a smile to Jim’s face when Rosie says that. “Of course, she’s right,” Jim thinks and remembers the practice runs when he started out too fast and struggled to complete or didn’t have the best time. It also reminds Jim of their relationship. Jim wanted to rush into their relationship and Rosie would tell him to take it slow and steady. Remember, this is a marathon, not a sprint.

+++

Jim and Rosie met September of 1995 and married two years later. Rosie had been a runner most of her adult life and Jim kept fit with basketball and softball. Rosie showed Jim the benefit of running – not only the physical benefits but running was also a way to escape the problems and complications of life. Rosie was so excited to have met her running soul mate. They started out running together and doing 5k and 10k’s. It just was not a good day if they did not get to run together.

Mile 5: Jim and Rosie are pushing each other to keep with their pace for their new PR, but also to look around and enjoy the day. The other runners are cheerful and happy to be there. The volunteers are amazing with their enthusiasm and funny signs. No pain in their legs (yet!) and they can still hold a conversation.

They lived in Dallas for 8 years after getting married and would get up every day at 5AM to run. Their daughter was on a competitive dance team in high school, so they had to run in the mornings to be with her in the evenings. They also have a special needs son that required a lot of attention, too. The running was a way for them to be with each other and to have some time for themselves. They started to get really serious about their running after their children graduated from high school and had moved on with their lives. They were able to run in more 5Ks and 10Ks and then they moved up to NW Arkansas. Little did they realize how they would miss the flat roads of Dallas. Many, many hills welcomed them to their neighborhood and presented a new challenge.

Mile 09: “Remember these roads?” Rosie asked Jim, “I sure do miss them.” Feet and hearts pounding together, Jim and Rosie encourage themselves and others to keep going and to stay positive. This was the second Rock-n-Roll Marathon Jim and Rosie had done together in Dallas. They had also trained for the 10 Mile Rock-n-Roll run in Nice, France in February 2014, but had to change their travel plans to take care of their 3 year old grandson after their daughter got sick. They still ran those 10 miles virtually on the same day and got their medals and tech shirts from France. They vow to make it to France one day.

+++

Things really picked up in 2009. Rosie was sponsored by Marathon Bars and Jim was sponsored by CLIF Bars. This created some friendly competition and banter. People would see us running together in races and see our different shirts advertising our sponsors. Many times they would ask which one was the best and both Rosie and Jim would answer “Mine!” Over the years, Rosie and Jim have been sponsored by Marathon Bars, CLIF Bars, Sun-Rype, and EMERGEN-C. “Being a sponsored runner is a great way to meet others. We have a huge base of friends we have met through running.” Jim says.

Mile 12: “Almost there” Jim says, “We can do it!” Rosie and Jim have been training with a friend to increase their speed and to set a new PR. This morning started out tough as it was very cold and windy and they were dealing with a lot of family and health issues. Rosie cried that morning and did not feel that she could finish the race, so why start it? Jim comforted her and encouraged her to get out there and that we will run this race like all the others – together, side by side. That is how they get through life, as well as their races. Like other runners, they left their “baggage” at the starting line.

+++

Their grandson, Jacob, has been their inspiration. He was born with a spot on his lung and, at the age of 6 months, he had major surgery to remove the lower lobe of his right lung. A few months later, the doctors called and said that they removed the wrong lobe and that Jacob needed to have another surgery! Before his 1st birthday, Jacob had his second major lung operation. That episode, along with some other major life changes, has made Jim and Rosie realize that importance of being fit.

“We have to be there for our grandson. We want to pay back for Jacob being healthy, to others that may need it.” Rosie says. “Jim and I are both certified personal trainers and certified yoga instructors. We own our own fitness business, Jacobs Ladder to Health and Fitness. Our focus is on obese children and women over 50. Sometimes it is easy to criticize and not help others but we want to be able to help others with the knowledge we have on how to live a healthy life through exercise, running and nutrition.”

Finish Line: Jim and Rosie raise their arms and cross the finish line together with a new PR! This was a challenging and exciting race. After a hug and a kiss, they make their way over to the booth area to get their Finisher’s Tech shirt!

+++

“Running has always been our time together.” Rosie says, “During our 17 years of marriage, we have not run one race alone, or even trained for a race apart.” Rosie and Jim plan on running many more half and full marathons in the future and want to run in at least 2 Rock-n-Roll marathons in different cities each year. And they hope to get to France to run the Rock-n-Roll race over there, too. It will all happen in due time as long as they remember to “run their pace and run their race.”
