New Year's Eve Half Marathon

Featured Fanatic

Andrea "Rhode Hazard" Herrmann, Half Fanatic #586

Tell us a little bit about your path to the Fanatic Asylum.

I joined the Half Fanatics back in 2010 when I first heard about the club. I was already used to doing several half marathons a year and was excited to learn there was a way to connect with other people who enjoyed the race distance, so I signed up, and got many other New Englanders on board.

I first hit "The Sun" (10 moons) in February 2012 after doing 52 half marathons in 365 days! I also completed my Marathon Maniacs qualifying races in 2012 to become Maniac #5586 and a "Double Agent". A freak injury sidelined me, but after several months of therapy and reparative procedures to my feet, I was able to get back to racing at the end of 2013. As a celebration of being healthy and able to run again, I decided to repeat my journey to the Sun a second time by doing 52 half marathons in 365 days from October 2013 to September 2014.

What / Who inspires you to lace up your shoes and run?

I volunteer as the Rhode Island Chapter Coordinator and the Director of Social Media for Medals4Mettle (www.medals4mettle.org), an international non-profit that collects earned donated finishers medals from half/full marathons and triathletes, and presents them to children and adults fighting serious and life-threatening illnesses to recognize them for their courage in what is often a race for their own lives.

The patients I see through Medals4Mettle keep me going. I know what they're going through is much harder than any course or any race. When I'm having a tough day and am walking the course, I think of the patients who would do anything to not be stuck in a bed, hooked to machines or tubes. When it's downpouring on a course, I think of the kids who would happily play in the rain. Every time I cross that finish line, I know how lucky I am to be able to race. The medals I earn go to children at Hasbro Children's Hospital in RI or the Connecticut Children's Medical Center in Hartford, CT.

I am also a wheelchair push athlete for My Team Triumph's Massachusetts chapter. MTT is an athletic ride-along program created for children, teens, adults and veterans with disabilities who would normally not be able to experience endurance events such as triathlons or road races. I volunteer to push disabled children through races in Massachusetts.

There are also a number of heroes in our club who inspire me with their courage and generosity to others. Linda Banchard so often gives up her race to help others, pushes newbies through a race, and goes back to help people finish. She is the ultimate cheerleader. Cynthia Tanzi is one of the most inspiring people I know. She lights up the back of the pack with her smile, her costumes, and her infamous flower hat. She showed people it's never too late to start your racing career, and has brought many a walker to the finish line, helping them on the course. Judy Graham-Garcia who finished Ironman Arizona this year fighting severe back spasms with sheer grit and determination. Tory Klementsen had to re-learn how participate in road races, and re-gain the ability to run, after a serious medical condition. She completed a half marathon with the assistance of a walker and trained to return to racing without support. This year, she completed her 100th lifetime half marathon.

There are so many heroes among us.

Andrea #586

Our goal is to move up to the Uranus moon level by completing 6 half marathons in 6 months! By the end of 2015 we will both also have completed 10 half marathons each and hope to become pacers for the Half Fanatics pace team!!!

Cheryl #8884

My resolution is to do 30 races in 30 states in 12 months to reach the SUN!

- Mark #9359

Tracey #9207

Danene #5005

Come hell or high water, I am going to run the back to back Hatfield and McCoy halves, the Marine Corp Marathon, and then the cherry on top, the Dopey Challenge.

-Gari #9642

Dani #8609

Quanda #9344

Amy #9970

My 2015 resolution is to complete my second full marathon (Glass City Marathon) in April 2015 in 4:30:00 or less.

FANATIC POLL

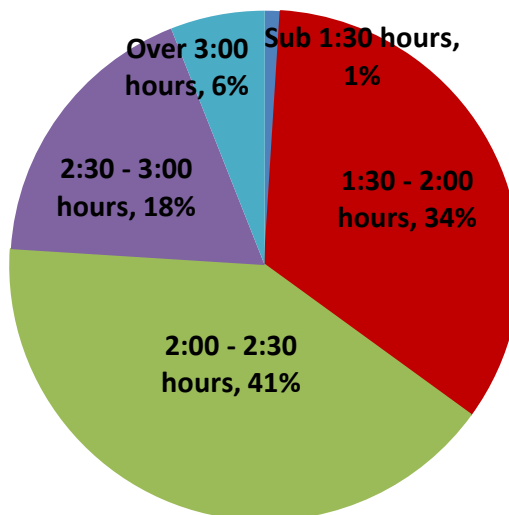

Each month there will be a “Fanatic poll”. This poll will be posted online. Please take a few moments to answer this poll. I will post the results in the next newsletter.

This month’s question:

What is your strategy when racing with friends?

Please vote online between now and January 31st at: <http://survey.constantcontact.com/poll/a07eaelsoy2i4uvhjt/start.html>.

Last month’s question:
What is your half marathon PR?
