DID YOU KNOW?

November had 182 race events listed on the Half Fanatics Race Calendar.

121 race events for December listed on our Race Calendar.

The top three were:

Rock n' Roll San Antonio led the way for December with the most Half Fanatics attending at 57. Most people rated it pretty good as a typical RnR event. Good expo, organization, and race support. The course was changed this year, and seemed to be an improvement from past years.

St. Jude Memphis Half Marathon is highly rated by those who run it. This year there were 41 Half Fanatics. A few complaints about how hilly it was, but great organization for the event and for a very good cause. One of the highlights is running by the hospital where the kids cheer you on.

Rounding out the top three, the BMW Dallas Half Marathon had 37 Half Fanatics sign up for this one. Most agreed it was a nice course running through various parts of downtown and surrounding neighborhoods.

FROM THE EDITOR

The month of December brought us some cooler weather and fewer events to choose from. I love when the event supports a great cause. This year, we once again participated in the Run to Stay Warm, and it appears to be an event that is growing and helping keep folks stay warm throughout the winter.

Want to share your "why you run", your achievements, goals, and any stories? Did you have a really great run -- or a horrid one? Are you celebrating any milestones: 50 half marathons? 100? 1000? Did you level up?

Shoot me an email to include you in the next newsletter!
