DID YOU KNOW?

3rd Quarter had 427 race events listed on the Half Fanatics Race Calendar.

The top three events were Quad Cities, Bridge of the Gods, and RnR Chicago.

The Quad Cities Half Marathon in Moline, IL had the most Half Fanatics in attendance for this quarter at 56. Reviewers said this a mostly flat course with a few rolling hills. The course crosses over the Mississippi river into Iowa and back to Illinois through four cities. The event has a very nice post-race party at the finish. One person commented that the course seemed a bit crowded at times.

Next up for the quarter with 49 Half Fanatics was the Bridge of the Gods Half Marathon in Cascade Locks, OR. Busses take you across the bridge to the start in Washington state, and then you run back over the bridge into Oregon. Then the course is essentially an out back on the Historic Columbia River Highway State Park Trail (paved). The course is definitely hilly, but it offers lots of shade and tremendous views. The after party is huge and has a catered lunch.

With 38 Half Fanatics showing up, the Rock 'n Roll Chicago Half Marathon came in third for the quarter. RnR events are always well organized, and they always feature various musical artists every few miles. The event in Chicago this year was very warm, but they had plenty of water, cold towels, and ice to keep everyone cool. All RnR events have terrific expos, and plenty of food and snacks after the event.

OUR WHY...WHY WE RUN

We all have our reason we run – our why – and it’s what gets us out the door most days. The more I run, the more people I meet, the more I’m learning about what brought others on their journey. Each month, I want to share as many of your whys as possible. Send me email to share yours.

UH OH! Looks like no one shared their why this quarter.

Would you like to share your “Why...Why you run” with fellow Fanatics?

Shoot me an email to include you in the next newsletter!
