HALF FANATICS

JULY 2016 NEWSLETTER

Featured Fanatic

Jenene Johnson, #13151

Who says I can't be a runner because I'm deaf and unable to hear anything around me? Do I need music to run? I definitely can run! Naturally, as a deaf runner, I thrive on my active eyes. Feeling the rhythm while running is like music to me!

Tell us about your path to the Fanatic Asylum. Long story short, my passion for running began when I ran my 3rd 5K on Mother's Day back in 2012. It was the very first time I ran all the way non-stop! The event was called, "Race for Cure" back then and it became more special to me when my mother passed away from cancer. Since that passionate day, I have completed many 5Ks, 10Ks and, in June of 2015, I ran my first half-marathon (and then 7 more since then)! I even completed my first full marathon last June 2016, the biggest milestone conquered!

What / Who inspires you to lace up your shoes and run?

Through running, I have learned so much more about myself, especially now that I'm in my 40's and running has allowed me to live a better lifestyle. I enjoy being a role model for my four beautiful kids, my granddaughter and also for the deaf community. All in all, I'm proud to call myself a runner!

So what is your next goal? My goal is to run half marathons in all 50 states before I turn 50! I'm now 43, so I have 7 years to do it! :-). My other goal also is to set up a 5K, perhaps 10K and kids run to support Lead-K (<http://www.asl4deafkids.org/>).
