HALF FANATICS

MARCH 2016 NEWSLETTER

Featured Fanatic

John MacIntyre, HF#1905,
MM#1722, DA#1343

I am one of the group of runners that raises the average age of the Half Fanatics. After retiring, I began my running career in 2005 by joining a Tucson, Arizona Jeff Galloway training program. In December of 2005 I ran my first Half Marathon...the Tucson Half. Since then I have been running with Galloway groups in Orlando, Washington D.C. and New Braunfels, Texas, or using my own version of a Galloway program. By the beginning of 2016, I've completed over 100 races from 5K's to full marathons. My favorite races are definitely halves, and I am a firm believer that halves are "Half the Distance and Twice the Fun". My best streak is 15 halves in a year. In 2015 I ran 12 halves and a 25K, which I include as a Half, for a total of 13 for the year.

It's hard to name my favorite half, since there are so many terrific ones. The best half always seems to be the one I just finished or the one I am aiming toward. My favorite marathon is easier to pick: it was the Marine Corps Marathon; fantastic course thru the monuments of DC, and well organized, as you would expect from The Marines.

In 2012 I joined the Half Fanatics and since then have focused on running a half every month or so. The Missions Marathon Half in San Antonio, Texas in February of 2016 was my 50th half. By June 2016, I am scheduled to run my 55th half just after turning 79 years old!

The best part of being a Half Fanatic, Marathon Maniac or Double Agent is meeting all the great runners in those respective groups. Most of the Fanatics I have met, particularly the women, all seem to be 25 years old, so by the time they are my age instead of 55 half marathons, they will have run hundreds. Go for it!
